

SULTRY CLASSICS PEOPLE LOVE

Adagio performs acoustic versions of smooth and sultry classics from artists such as Aretha Franklin, Bill Withers, Sam Cooke, Norah Jones and Curtis Mayfield, as well as original acoustic/soul music.

The warm and rich vocal style of front woman and acoustic guitarist Angela Davise are supported by the silky texture of the upright bass and smooth, brushed drum grooves.

Adagio's sound is perfect for fun, upscale settings where intimate connections aren't drowned out, but rather enhanced and celebrated with tunes we all know and love.

Based out of Portland, Oregon, couple Angela Davise and Patrick Hildreth formed Adagio out of a love of old-school classics and the desire to play them in unique, smaller venues.

Adagio is currently busy playing wineries, cocktail lounges and private events around the Northwest while writing and recording new material for an upcoming release.
